

INFORMATION AND APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

Before completing the Master course application form, please read the following information carefully.

The completed application form and the required documents must be submitted in English to inema@ph-ludwigsburg.de

Documents in languages other than English or German must be submitted with a certified translation in English.

Admission requirements

Applicants have to fulfill the following minimum requirements:

- Bachelor degree
- Good command of the English language (at least TOEFL iBT 79 or IELTS Band 6)
- Two years of professional experience
- A relation to the education sector or development cooperation
- High study motivation for learning in international settings

Application period

The application period for the 2019 intake starts in November 2018. The application deadline is March 31, 2019.

EPOS scholarships offered by the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) are available. Scholarship holders will be selected by DAAD among applicants after March 31; the selected candidates will be announced in June.

Application documents

To apply for the INEMA program, applicants need to send the complete set of documents in electronic form to the Department for International Educational Leadership and Management at the Ludwigsburg University of Education, attn. Ms. Tanja Richter: inema@ph-ludwigsburg.de

The complete set of documents consists of:

- completed INEMA application form
- detailed curriculum vitae (please use the sample europass form at <http://europass.cedefop.europa.eu/>)
- Copies of Academic Degrees
- Copies of Academic Transcripts
- Copy of School Leaving Certificate (i.e. Higher education entrance qualification)
- Professional Letter of recommendation from your employer; the letter must have a signature and must be of recent date (not in a sealed envelope)
- Motivation letter (two pages)
- Copy of your passport (photo page)
- Additional documents might be requested after acceptance

Documents in languages other than English or German must be submitted with a certified translation in English.

EPOS Scholarships

Applicants from eligible countries may apply for a full EPOS scholarship to be awarded by the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD).

For a list of eligible countries please visit:

https://www.daad.de/medien/der-daad/unsere-aufgaben/entwicklungszusammenarbeit/pdfs/dac-liste_epos_2017.pdf

Applicants with German citizenship may apply for a partial EPOS scholarship. In addition to the requirements mentioned on page 1, applicants, who want to apply for an EPOS scholarship, have to fulfill the following requirements:

- Their academic degrees should normally not be more than six years old.
- All applicants must state their current work situation at the time of application and submit proof of employment.

In addition to the documents mentioned on page 2, applicants who want to apply for an EPOS scholarship, additionally need to provide:

- DAAD application form
(https://www.daad.de/medien/deutschland/stipendien/formulare/forschungsstipendium_en.pdf)
- Written confirmation of current employment from your employer that include the exact position and period of employment
- Academic Letter/s of Recommendation from the last visited university; the letter must have an official letterhead, a signature and official stamp and must be of recent date (not in a sealed envelope)
- Applicants from the People's Republic of China are asked to submit an APS Certificate, as well as two address labels written in Chinese characters with their application documents.

All application documents must be sent electronically to the INEMA program (INEMA@ph-ludwigsburg.de) and will be made available to DAAD.

Selection Process

Written Application

After the application phase, the selection committee will review all applications.

Please be aware that only complete applications with all requested documents sent in one batch can be considered.

Interviews

Shortlisted candidates will be invited for an extended interview via video conference system or telephone.

The interview is conducted by invite only and is a positive indicator of interest, but is not a guarantee of admission. All invited applicants must complete their interview in order to be considered for admission.

Interviews usually take about 30 minutes and are conducted by one or more staff members of the INEMA program and serve as an opportunity for the applicant to demonstrate their motivation and interest the field of study.

Post-interview

After the interview phase, the applicants will be informed about the outcome of their application, i.e. whether they can be admitted to the program. This usually happens within 3-6 weeks after the interviews.

EPOS scholarships

The decision about the EPOS scholarships will be made separately by the DAAD, based on the application dossiers as well as the assessments from the aforementioned interviews via video conference system or telephone.
